Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 15 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry with some warm or very warm sunshine.

Today:
Rather cloudy start across the far north and northwest, otherwise dry with long spells of warm or very warm sunshine for many. Winds will be mainly light, although an occasionally fresh southwesterly is expected across the Outer Hebrides and Shetland.

Tonight:
Dry with late sunny then long clear spells for most, perhaps a few fog patches developing. However the far west and north become cloudier with a little drizzle by dawn.

Friday:
Rather cloudy across the north and far west with patchy drizzle and a southwesterly breeze. Elsewhere dry with light winds and good spells of warm or very warm sunshine.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Another bright and very warm day across the south and east Saturday, however cloud and occasional rain in the northwest edge south through Sunday. Becoming brighter again Monday but cooler.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.